DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restriction

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-9, drawn to a prothesis, classified in class 623, subclass 13.11.
- II. Claims 10-15, drawn to a tissue culture system, classified in class 424, subclass 93.1.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions II and I are related as mutually exclusive species in an intermediate-final product relationship, respectively. Distinctness is proven for claims in this relationship if the intermediate product is useful to make other than the final product (MPEP § 806.04(b), 3rd paragraph), and the species are patentably distinct (MPEP § 806.04(h)). In the instant case, the intermediate product is deemed to be useful as a research tool to investigate the role of hedgehog proteins in the development of cartilage and musculature; and the inventions are deemed patentably distinct since there is nothing on this record to show them to be obvious variants. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions anticipated by the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Claims 1-15 generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising independent and distinct molecules disclosed as being hedgehog therapeutics. The specification contemplates an essentially limitless number of structurally distinct molecules, the use of one not being required for the use of any other. Although a search of any one of the species might overlap that of another, the search of one species could not be relied upon to provide art that would anticipate or might render obvious any other, and to search all would be burdensome. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species consisting of a single molecule, even though this requirement is traversed.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. Claims 1-8, 10-15 generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species of matrix material comprising polyglycolid acid, collagen, dextran sulfate, etc., each species being a structurally and functionally distinct molecule, the use of one not being required for the use of any other. Although a search of any one of these might overlap that of another, the search of one species could not be relied upon to provide art that would anticipate or might render obvious any other, and to search all would be burdensome. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species consisting of a single species of matrix material, even though this requirement is traversed.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
